GLOBAL UPDATE

Welcome to the WorldGBC May Global Update.

As many of you will know, 2022 marks 20 years of WorldGBC and our global network.

To mark this anniversary, we invite you join us for WorldGBC+20 Global Solution Forum - Accelerating Decarbonised and Sustainable Built Environments.

This event will take place in London on Tuesday 28 June, as part of WorldGBC+20 Leadership Summit, and alongside London Climate Action Week.

This event will bring together leaders and changemakers from across our network, showcasing our sector's solutions to keep the 1.5°C scenario within reach.

Please register here to learn more.

Here are the highlights from this month's update:

- Register for WorldGBC+20: Global Solutions Forum for Accelerating Decarbonised and Sustainable Built Environments, 28 June 2022
- Save the date, World Green building Week 2022, 12–16 September

GLOBAL SOLUTIONS FORUM

28 June 2022
London, UK

It's time to accelerate a decarbonised and sustainable built environment for everyone, everywhere

To mark 20 years of WorldGBC, we're hosting WorldGBC+20: Global Solutions Forum for Accelerating Decarbonised and Sustainable Built Environments on 28 June in London.

The Forum will bring together progressive leaders and special guests from across the WorldGBC network, to share insights and accelerate decarbonisation and sustainability now.

Why join us in person:

- Reconnect with the largest local-regional-global action network advancing decarbonisation and sustainability in the built environment for everyone, everywhere
- Discover solutions that are ready to scale by 2025
- Celebrate 20 years of accomplishments

This event is made possible by the generous support of UKGBC and our sponsors:

Platinum Partner: Carrier
Gold Partners: Arup and Majid Al Futtaim
Silver Partners: Foster + Partners and JLL

Please note that this is a paid event with a limited number of tickets.

Save the date, World Green Building Week, 12–16 September 2022

World Green Building Week (WGBW) is our annual flagship campaign that empowers our community to advance sustainable built environments for everyone, everywhere.

Stay tuned for the announcement of this year's campaign theme, 6 June.

Construction leaders from across Europe launch the EU Policy Roadmap towards climate neutral buildings and construction by 2050.

On Tuesday 24 May, World Green Building Council launched a bold new policy plan for the European Union to accelerate progress on decarbonising buildings and construction, one of the most heavily emitting sectors in the world.

Developed with the support of a coalition of over 35 leading industry bodies through WorldGBC's flagship #BuildingLife project, the EU Policy Roadmap is the first of its kind at EU scale to address the whole life carbon impact of the built environment, across multiple policy routes.

Stephen Richardson on why Europe's buildings can play a critical role in addressing the energy crisis

EUROPE REGIONAL NETWORK

Stephen Richardson, Director of WorldGBC's Europe Regional Network.

The ongoing war in Ukraine has brought suffering and tragedy on a scale many of us thought, and hoped, not to see in Europe in our lifetimes.

It has also underscored the urgent need to tackle energy security and reduce reliance on fossil fuels on a global scale.

In the wake of the invasion, the EU has published a new energy plan called REPowerEU to move Europe's energy systems towards a more resilient and green future.

However, the role of buildings and infrastructure in addressing the crisis has been largely overlooked.

WorldGBC is calling on the EU to rectify this oversight, by drawing attention to how accelerating building renovation can massively reduce the EU's energy consumption.

Elizabeth Wangeci Chege, Vice Chair of WorldGBC Board, at MENA Climate Week

With increasing population growth and rapid unplanned urbanisation, there is mounting demand for buildings.

Without immediate action, construction of urban housing and its associated infrastructure will significantly deplete global resources.

At #MenaClimateWeek, experts from World Green Building Council, Reall, Middle East Institute and Arup discussed the rapid delivery of climate-resilient housing.
